

26th JCPA and Society for ICPA WORKSHOP IN COMPARATIVE POLICY ANALYSIS
Comparative Analysis of Policy and Practice for Atrocity Prevention *Subject to Change*

Thursday, November 7

Participants arrive and check into the Holiday Inn Downtown Binghamton

5pm - Opening Reception, Uncorked Wine Loft, 205 State Street, 3rd Floor (Please note that this location is not handicap accessible)

Friday, November 8

8:00am Breakfast at the University Downtown Center (UDC)

8:30am-9:00am Welcome and Introductions

9:00am-10:15pm* Paper 1: "Atrocity Prevention in Virtual Spaces: Digital Truth-Telling from a Comparative Perspective" by Arnaud Kurze (Montclair State University) and Eric Wiebelhaus-Brahm (University of Arkansas at Little Rock)
Discussant: Sarah Schmidt

10:15am-11:30pm Paper 2: "Which Human Rights Prevent Mass Atrocity?" by Skip Mark (University of Rhode Island) and David Cingranelli (Binghamton University)
Discussant: Gina Abena Amedeka

11:30am-12:45pm Paper 3: "Organized Demands: People's Tribunals as a Mass Atrocity Prevention Tool" by Regina M. Paulose
Discussant: Chris Einolf

12:45pm-2:00pm Lunch (UDC)

- 2:00pm-3:15pm Paper 4: “Cultivating Crisis: The Military-Food Industrial Complex and Mass Atrocity Risk” by Sarah Schmidt (Kent State University) and Salvador Rivas Aceves (Universidad Panamericana)
Discussant: David Cingranelli
- 3:15pm-4:30pm Paper 5: “The Prevention of Torture: A Comparative Analysis of Policy and Practice” by Chris Einolf (Northern Illinois University)
Discussant: Regina M. Paulose
- 6:30pm Dinner - Remlik’s Grille & Oyster Bar, 31 Lewis Street

Saturday, November 9

8:00am - Breakfast at the University Downtown Center (UDC)

- 8:30am-9:45am Paper 6: “Assessing the impact of the Maputo Protocol on GBV in Africa: A comparative study of Ghana, Liberia, Cameroon and Egypt” by Gina Abena Amedeka (Virginia Commonwealth University)
Discussant: Christopher P. Davey
- 9:45am-11:00am Paper 7: “The Case for Communities of Prevention: Responding to Climate and Mass Violence at once, and at Home” by Bienfait Kazamwali Mukamba, (Groupe d’Etudes sur les Conflits et la Sécurité Humaine [GEC-SH], DRC), Obasesam Okoi, (University of St Thomas, Minnesota), and Christopher P. Davey (Binghamton University)
Discussant: Arnaud Kurze
- 11:30-1:00pm Lunch (location TBD)

*15 minute presentation, 10-15 minutes feedback from discussants, 30-35 minute open conversation, 15 minute cushion for more time and breaks, etc.